

Unsung Hero - 2/23/200

We all want to be a hero at some point in our lives...but somewhere along the way we lost our belief in ourselves. This Generation needs a Barnabus who will speak up and be an advocate for them. Could you imagine what this world could look like if this next Generation knew there were adults who didn't have concern, but rather HOPE for their future. You have the opportunity to be someone's unsung hero.

1. Have you ever had a mountain top moment where you thought you could do anything? Explain.
2. What happened? Why did that passion go away?
3. When you think of this Generation of students...what word comes to mind?
4. Read Act 9:26-27 Have you ever had a Barnabus in your life? Share who that was and what they did to impact you?
5. What are some practical ways that you can do something and share an encouraging word with the generation behind you?
