

Making It Matter

When tragedy strikes, it's natural to ask the question Why me? The harder and more unnatural question is How can I make this matter?

Discussion Questions

1. What about this interview stood out to you?
2. Were you raised to believe that having more faith would lead to circumstances turning out the way you want? Do you currently believe that? Explain.
3. Read Job 42:5.
  - What stands out to you?
  - Would you say you've placed your faith more in your theology of God, or in God himself? Explain.
4. In light of this interview, would the people closest to you say they are loved well by you? Is there something you need to say or start doing? If so, what?

To Consider

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

*I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."*

—Pslam 91:1–2

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

—Romans 8:28
