

Part 1: How Good Is Good Enough?

The belief that "Good people go to heaven" sounds nice on the surface. But it doesn't make sense.

Discussion Questions

- 1. What are your thoughts as to how the concept of being good enough to earn heaven originated?
- 2. Growing up, were you taught that heaven was contingent upon:
 - · Being good enough?
 - · Being baptized enough? Believing enough?
 - A combination?
 - · Something else altogether?
- 3. Growing up, did you pray a salvation prayer more than once, just to be sure? What does that assume about God? About you?
- 4. Read John 3:1-18.
 - What are your observations about this passage? What key words stand out?
 - What was Nicodemus trying to get answered? How did Jesus answer him?
 - In verse 16, what key words stand out? How does this verse address the question, "How good is good enough?"
