

God's Great Gamble

Forgiving someone before they ask for it isn't easy, but it's exactly what God did for us.

Discussion Questions:

1. Should we be quick to forgive? Is it possible to be too quick to forgive? In your own words, what does forgiveness accomplish?
 2. God forgives us even before we ask for it. Have you ever considered that? Have you ever forgiven someone without being asked?
 3. Read Luke 5:20–24. Does this shed any light on why Jesus performed miracles? If so, how?
 4. Read Luke 7:37–49. In our modern-day backdrop, what are some ways we could act like the woman in the story? That is, how can we apply her example to our own lives today?
 5. Read Romans 5:6–8. What is our responsibility in light of the fact that Christ died for us while we were still sinners? How should this motivate us to love and serve others?
