Fatal Distractions

“Great Work!”

Great work is often found on the other side of a terrifying longing. How could clarity regarding your “terrifying longing” reduce the allure of the distractions you’re most susceptible to?

Discussion Questions

1. What life roles or responsibilities primarily consume your attention?
2. Do you believe those things represent the great work God prepared in advance for you to do? How could you be certain?
3. What types of distraction are you most susceptible to? How could clarity regarding your “terrifying longing” reduce the allure of those distractions?
4. Joel cautioned us about “continuous partial attention.” This amounts to a loss of focus or a lack of vision. How, specifically, has this impacted your ability to stay focused on the great work right in front of you?
5. Is there a terrifying longing in your life you’ve been trying to ignore? What are you afraid might happen if you were to pursue it?
