Red Flags, Respect, & Relationships

This series focuses on a subject that's incredibly important for kids in this phase: dating and sex. Even if they aren't involved in or curious about either yet, the goal is for your middle schooler to see the value in navigating relationships and sex in a way that honors God, others, and themselves now. That's why we're pointing them toward avoiding relational red flags, choosing respect for themselves and others, and handling their dating relationships and choices with sexual integrity.

MEMORY VERSE

"Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect."
Romans 12:2, NLT

Week One

Romans 12:1-2

God cares about what we do with our desires.

Week Two

1 Corinthians 6:12, John 10:10

God cares about what we do with our freedom.

Week Three

Mark 12:30-31

God cares about how we value ourselves and others.

Week Four

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

God cares about us demonstrating love before looking for love.

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your middle schooler starts their day, acknowledge a time when they showed honor or respect to someone.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone answer this question: "What are some things that all people desire? (to be loved, to be wanted, to be touched) Which of those resonates most with you?"

Drive Time

While on the go this week, show your kid respect by asking their opinion on a family issue. This isn't a time for correction, just for listening. So give them space to share even if you don't agree with their point of view.

Bed Time

Pray that you and your kid will honor God with your desires this week.
